NEWSLETTER ISSUE—Vol. 2, No. 4

OCTOBER, 1972

Enrollment Is Up

Enrollment is up at Wesleyan, says her president, Dr. W. Earl Strickland, over 11% above last year. A 12% increase in new students brings the total to over 500, with half the states of our country represented, as well as seven outside the continental USA.

Millard Beckum, director of admissions, reports that applications for next year are coming in daily.

"We appreciate the support from alumnae and friends of the College who spread the story of Wesleyan to prospective students", said Mr. Beckum, "also the 'Welcome Aboard' parties given for new girls."

Several over-night seminars for college-bound students are planned. All inquiries should be addressed to the Admissions Office, Wesleyan College.

Improve Buildings

The entire three floors of Persons Hall were painted and refurbished during the summer in anticipation of the largest freshman class in recent years. Offices of the new dean of student affairs were enlarged and furnished with antiques and paintings given by friends of the college in past years, as were the three study parlors. The Huckabee Infirmary is being enlivened with gay new draperies and pictures.

Shows Treasures

A series of historical tours of Wesleyan was presented by Frances Strohecker, retired secretary to Wesleyan presidents and honorary alumna of '60 on Tuesdays in September.

Schafer is New Dean Of Student Affairs

Mrs. Joyce Reddick Schafer, BS '55, chairman of the Department of Physical Education for the past 11 years, has been appointed Dean of Student Affairs. She earned the MS degree at Smith College in 1958, with further graduate study in the field of student personnel and educational administration at Georgia State.

A leader in the civic and religious life of Macon she is popular on campus. In 1965 and 1967 the local Red Cross chapter presented their Humanity Award to her; in 1970 Wesleyan students dedicated their yearbook, the Veterropt, to her.

Joyce "snowed" the entire student body, faculty and staff with a series of "sundaes on Sundays at Schafer's."

Dean Rusk Speaks

Dean Rusk, former US Secretary of State, will be the distinguished speaker for Wesleyan's Fall Convocation Oct. 25 at 4:30 in Porter Auditorium. Music will be furnished by John O'Steen, organist, and two soprano students, Kay Tucker and Gen Shelton. Herbert Herrington will play the chimes before the academic procession.

A native of Cherokee County, Ga., Mr. Rusk earned his AB from Davidson College, 1931; BS, St. John's, Oxford (Rhodes Scholar), 1933; MA, 1934. For six years he was associate professor and Dean of the Faculty at Mills College. In 1946 he joined the US Department of State as assistant chief, Division of International Security Affairs. He was special assistant Secretary of War for a year, then director of the Office of U N Affairs for the Department of State. He served as Secretary of State until 1969. From 1952-60 he was president of the Rockefeller Foundation, and for the past two years has been professor of International Law, School of Law, U. Ga.

Trustees are to dine together that night, and gather next day for the annual fall meeting of the board.

Council to Meet

Luncheon with the President and a skit by foreign students will be enjoyed on the day of Alumnae Council meeting, Wed., Oct. 25. A Recorder Group, led by Ray Harris, will play.

Dr. Oscar C. Page, Wesleyan's academic dean, participated in a two-month faculty seminar in Yugoslavia this summer. It was sponsored by the Association of Colleges and Universities for International Intercultural Studies (ACUIIS), of which Wesleyan is a member.

Thirty American professors were chosen for the three week session at the Workers University in Ljubljana, which was followed by a five-week trip through Yugoslavia, Hungary, Romania, Bulgaria, and Poland. The Americans were given four days of orientation at the United Nations. The project was with the cooperation of the US State Department and HEW. (Photo above shows Dr. Page with Yugoslavian milkmaid.)

Maxwell, Napier Halls Named for Wesleyannes

Two new buildings named for Wesleyan alumnae and an addition to the Herty science hall were dedicated at Georgia College, Milledgeville, on Sept. 28. Maxwell College Union honors the late Mary Thomas Maxwell, president of the class of '24 at Wesleyan and first alumnae class secretary. "Tommie" retired in 1968 after 32 years in the English department, and four years as dean of women at Georgia College. She died in 1970.

The new coeducational dormitory is named for Alice Napier, of the class of '88, who taught in the department of mathematics for 53 years — 29 as head — at Georgia College. She died at 96.

Speaker at the convocation-dedication program was Dr. Ward Pafford, president of West Georgia College and husband of Wesleyanne Sarah Jones Pafford, '34.

Mrs. W. Earl Strickland, wife of Wesleyan's president; Miss Ann Munck, associate professor of English, and Mrs. Charles E. Nadler, alumnae editor, represented Wesleyan.

Clubs are Active

A Kitchen Karavan is planned by the Atlanta Alumnae Club Sunday, Nov. 12, from 2-5. Carolyn Malone Carpenter, '39, is Atlanta president; Peggy Craig Bryant, '63, is chairman of ways and means.

The Atlanta fall meeting was held October 10 at the home of the Randolph Throwers. Following dessert at 7:30 Mr. Thrower, chairman of the Wesleyan Board of Trustees, spoke. His wife is Margaret Munroe Thrower, '35.

Atlanta Group 8 met October 9, Macon Club on the 17th, and the young Columbus Club will have a dinner on the 23rd.

Set Mock Election

Political Emphasis Week will stimulate the campus Oct. 30-Nov. 3 when speakers will present issues and discuss youth's involvement. A mock election is set for Nov. 2, all sponsored by Student Senate. Ann Thornton, Maryville, Tenn. is president of Student Government.

Of Loyalty and Lilies

A night-time telephone campaign in the Atlanta area Oct. 17, 18, 19 launched the 1972-73 Alumnae Loyalty Fund drive. People called had not contributed in the past fiscal year. Sally Shingler Kurrie, '70, (Mrs. Thompson Kurrie) is Atlanta telephone chairman. Trustee Rufus Green helped to obtain the place and the telephones from which alumnae could make calls.

A mailing sent to all alumnae, reminding them of the new Loyalty Fund campaign, included a brightly printed folder on amaryllis bulbs, to be ordered for Christmas gifts (Price: $5.95, plus 95c postage). Profits from this sale will be added to the Loyalty Fund, all of whose proceeds are used for current operating expenses of the College.

Those contributing to this latest Loyalty Fund campaign will receive an original print of the Willet Memorial Library, by Weize Anne Hayes, '73.

The Alumnae Office reports that the 1971-72 Loyalty Fund received $19,528.51, with $6,150.00 in designated funds. (Over $100 was given by each of 43 alumnae). Other gifts from alumnae, given through the President's Office: $2,505, designated, and $200 for current funds. This past year 75 contributions were made in memory of deceased alumnae.

Macon alumnae netted $3611 from 156 contributors in a whirl-wind telephone campaign in May. Sandi Bell Shipp, '66, (Mrs. Robert Shipp) retiring president of the Macon club, was chairman.

Ellen Fling Danner '70, helps with Macon alumnae telephone campaign.

Establish Funds

GREEN

A scholarship fund has been established by Mr. and Mrs. Rufus K. Green, of Atlanta, to be known as the Rufus and Jane Mulkey Green Scholarship Fund. It will go each year to the rising junior who has shown the greatest promise in written or spoken English. Jane, AB '42, BFA in speech and drama, '43, is a former teacher; she is past national president of the alumnae. Her husband is a Trustee of the College.

KNOX

A significant gift has been made as the beginning of an endowed fund by Mr. and Mrs. Peter S. Knox, Jr., of Thomson, Ga., and J. Boone Aiken, father of Mrs. Knox. Mary Lyles Aiken Knox, '34, was president of the student body and May Queen; she was elected "Miss Charming" for three years by her fellow students. P. S. Knox III, Augusta, Ga., is married to Pat Rimmer, '58.

Trustee Makes News

Wesleyan Trustee Bernard B. Ramsey, who is chairman of the executive committee of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner, and Smith, is also chairman of the building committee for the 54-story steel structure into which the world's largest securities company is moving this month.

Mr. Ramsey already occupies his office on the 46th floor of One Liberty Plaza. While directing the construction of this $120 million skyscraper in the heart of New York City he has also been building a vacation home on Little Cumberland, off the Georgia coast.

He and his wife, the former Eugenia Anderson, alumna of '39 and daughter of Annie Gantt Anderson, '13, have an apartment in New York; their home is in Lake Mohawk, N. J.

His most recent notice was a story about the ML move, with picture, in the New York TIMES in May, also a group picture, in May FORTUNE. Gertrude Smith Trawick, '35, wrote an informative article for the Macon NEWS May 29.

Add New Faculty, Staff

Dr. Jacob S. Quiambao, teacher and later president of Union Theological Seminary near Manila, Philippines for 20 years, has been appointed to teach in the Religion department. He will try to promote interest in missions, besides giving courses in Old Testament and Eastern religions.

Dr. Quiambao first studied law and is a member of the Philippine bar. He has spent five years in US graduate schools, has a master's degree from Northwestern and a doctorate from Boston U. The past six months he lived in Ann Arbor, Mich., where his wife was a counselor for foreign students at the university's International Center. For ten years she was head of the department of psychology and guidance at the University of the East, Philippines.

With them is their daughter, Melinda, 15. A son, Edwin, has just graduated from Upsala College in New Jersey; daughter Arlyne is married to an American and teaches school in Houston, Tex.

Other new faculty members include Mrs. Sara Clarke, instruction in foreign languages; Dr. James E. Stark, psychology; Miss Sally Bullard, director of counselling; Miss Donna Johnston, music; Dr. Allen Moon, chemistry; and Anthony H. Rice, sculpture and art history.

James A. Nesbitt, native of Atlanta, is the new associate director of admissions. He will concentrate on recruiting students from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. A former admissions counselor at the U of Georgia, he was director of admissions at Middle Georgia College.

New director of Public Relations at Wesleyan is J. O. "Bud" Paine, winner of Associated Press state awards for writing and photography. A graduate of Georgia Tech he covers 17 years as newspaper city and managing editor, free-lance magazine writer and photographer, and publications editor. For the past seven years he has been director of news services and publications at Mercer U.

Continuing Education New Plan, Lower Fees

Initiated last year, the new Continuing Education Program enables students to attend Wesleyan at a reduced cost, less than half the normal fee, and has been expanded to allow women to work toward a degree by enrolling as full-time Continuing Education students.

Female high school graduates out of school at least seven years, or those who have attended college previously, can attend Wesleyan under this plan. The program is also open to men, including high school seniors, who desire one or two courses on a part-time basis. College credit may be earned.

Regular day classes, also a special group of seven night-Saturday courses, have met with good response in the community. Offered are Computer Programming, Fundamentals of Real Estate, Teaching the Young Child, Introduction to Exceptional Children, Assessment of Exceptional Children, Genetics, and English Composition.

Order Your Cards Now

Wesleyan Christmas Cards are available at the Alumnae Office. Very beautiful, they portray the Madonna and Child, a color reproduction of a 15th Century Venetian painting which hangs in the Burden Parlor. Price: 25 for $2.50 plus tax.

OIDA

In Memory of OIDA JOHNSON WARD

A $5,000 gift has been made in memory of the late Mrs. Ouida Johnson Ward, 1924 graduate of Washington, D. C., by her husband and sisters.

It will establish a scholarship fund with the proceeds going to worthy students, especially those studying for careers in health or medicine.

Mrs. Ward completed a master's degree in languages at Duke and the University of Michigan. She taught Spanish at the public schools in Waycross, Ga., joined the US State Department in 1946.

During 20 years there Mrs. Ward edited documents of US diplomatic relations with European nations. She retired in 1968 and this year retired as secretary-treasurer of her husband's photographic business. Mrs. Ward was a native of Baxley, Ga.

LIVIE DOUGLASS WILLIAMS

Under the terms of the will of Mrs. Joe Douglass Dean (Robertson) a gift has been made to establish the Livie Douglass Williams scholarship fund in honor and memory of Mrs. Dean's mother, Mrs. Livie (Edwards) Douglass Williams, Birmingham, Ala., AB, '83.

Wesleyan in Her Will

A very significant bequest has been made under the provisions of the will of Sally Wilson (Mrs. Roy) Crockett, Macon, whose death last spring was a great loss to the cultural life of Macon. She served as professor of voice and chorus at Wesleyan for a number of years.

Plan 1973 Weekend

Plans are already under way for Alumnae Weekend, May 4-5, 1973, with Reunion Class presidents selecting motels, writing classmates, etc. Reunion chairman is Jackie Davis Richardson, '60, Macon.

Reunion classes are Golden, 1923; Silver, '48; Bequest, '38; also

1898	1906	1918	1944	1959
1903	1908	1925	1945	1960
1905	1913	1943	1946	1961
				1962

Honor Miss Shiver

The Veterropt, 1972, was dedicated to Cornelia Shiver, '25, head of the department of history and political science. She and Ernestine Bledsoe, '33, travelled to Australia, New Zealand, and South Sea islands this summer. Miss Shiver and Ann Munck, '38, will head a tour of Greece in January for Project '73.

Exhibit Art

Joel Plum, of the art department, will exhibit his ceramics at the Unitarian Universalist Church gallery, Ft. Wayne, Ind., in November.

Miss Marcia Isaacson, of the art faculty, will be included in the Georgia Artists II Exhibition at the High Museum of Art, Atlanta, opening Nov. 12. One of her pencil sketches was selected for the Georgia Artists' show in the Macon Museum of Arts and Sciences during the summer.

House Featured

The magazine ANTIQUES for September carried a cover picture and beautifully illustrated article on the Gordon-Banks house, in Newnan, Ga. Designed by Daniel Pratt c. 1828, it was moved from its original location 100 miles away to the site of the former William N. Banks home. Restored and furnished with authentic antiques, it is the home of Mrs. Banks, the former Evelyn Wright, alumna of '14, and her son, William. An article by the latter on George Cooke, American painter, appears in the same issue. Mrs. Banks is a Trustee Emeritus of Wesleyan; her late husband served on the board for a number of years. Banks dormitory is a living memorial to these benefactors of the College.

Peden on Panel

Cameron R. Peden, Business Manager and Treasurer of Wesleyan, appeared on a panel in Atlanta Oct. 11 sponsored by the Southern Association of College and University Business Offices. Their audit guide review will be presented to the American Institute of CPA's.

Pulitzer Prize Play

"The Skin of Our Teeth", Thornton Wilder's play on man's will to survive throughout the ages, is the first presentation of the Drama department, October 19-21, in Porter Auditorium.

Tour Hostess Frances Van Horn in Amsterdam last June.

Next Year Again!

The 1973 Alumnae Tour of Europe is scheduled to leave June 14 for "two glorious weeks of fun and excitement". Five countries will be visited — Portugal, Switzerland, Germany, Austria, and Italy. Inquiries may be addressed to the Alumnae Office. Twenty-two accompanied Frances Van Horn, alumnae director and tour hostess, on the trip to northern Europe last June.
